TASTING NOTE

The mineral-rich Haardt Riesling has a distinctive body, and its bouquet possesses typical yellow fruit notes, such as apricots and ripe peaches.

AWARDS

2022 James Suckling: 93/100 "For a riesling from the Pfalz this has an almost Mosel-like floral personality. Notes of fresh mint and parsley fill out the bouquet. Then comes a big wave of melon fruit that is of eye-popping intensity. Breathtaking freshness at the vibrant finish."

2021 James Suckling: 93/100 "A very elegant and racy wine for the warm Pfalz with a wonderful range of aromas from yellow peach and melon through to red apple and Amalfi lemon. Ample fruit in spite of the relatively sleek body. Long, very vibrant and crisp finish."

2020 James Suckling: 94/100 "Still a bit closed, but beautifully proportioned. With aeration, this medium-bodied dry Pfalz riesling develops so many delicate spicy and floral notes. Compact structure and a long, tight finish suggest this has quite some aging potential. Drink or hold."
