

SPÄTBURGUNDER ROTWEIN

dry

Herzog

TASTING NOTE

The bouquet of this Spätburgunder from Haardt Herzog has a delicate dark forest fruit fragrance with blackberry, black cherry and currant. Its lush body is carried by an elegant tannin structure right through to the multi-layered finish.

AWARDS

2021 James Suckling: 93/100 "Warm and rooty with full wild blackberry fruit and a hint of rye bread crust, this bold pinot noir is the opposite of the thin, pale and sour wine much of the world still expects from this grape in Germany. Full, fleshy palate with healthy underlining tannins and lively acidity. Long finish with plenty of energy and freshness." | enos Spätburgunder-Challenge: Top Ten
