
RIESLING, PINOT & CO | UTRECHT

June 27, 2022

With 400 expert visitors from trade, gastronomy and the media, the 19th "Riesling, Pinot & Co" fair in the Netherlands was very well attended. Numerous sommeliers took the opportunity to taste German wines selections from over 40 exhibitors. The master classes on sustainability, held by Romana Echensperger (Master of Wine) and Dr. Ludwig Pasch (Institute for Oenology at Hochschule Geisenheim University), was followed by over 130 trade visitors. A total of 400 interested guests then embarked on the "journey through the German wine-growing regions": In the Railway Museum in Utrecht, 45 German producers and Dutch importers presented their wines and sparkling wines between the railway carriages and locomotives on display.

Our presented wines:

2021 MC Riesling | VDP. Gutswein dry
2021 Haardt Riesling | VDP.Ortswein dry
