
VINUM | WINE COMPETITION "BEST OF GERMANY" SEPTEMBER 2021

German wine is enjoying increasing popularity in the domestic market. But how well is German wine being received abroad? More precisely: in the southern neighboring country of Switzerland? The "Best of Germany" competition put the German Crus in the Swiss specialist trade under the microscope (45 WINE DEALERS from Switzerland | 460 SUBMITTED WINES from all 13 German wine-growing regions):

1st PLACE in the category "WHITE BURGUNDY DRY" &

Nomination in the category "BEST BUY BETWEEN 20 AND 30 FRANCS" (only 5 wines mentioned in total)

2019 Herrenletten Weissburgunder

VDP. First layer dry

"Lemon tart, also lemongrass on the nose. Well structured, fine yellow-white fruit notes, also wet stone, salt marshes, as well as salt capers and rosemary. On the palate, a fine sweet tip such as meringue stands out. A multi-layered wine with enormous potential." | Drinking recommendation: 2021 to 2035

Nomination in the category "BEST BUY BETWEEN 15 AND 20 FRANCS" (only 5 wines mentioned in total)

2019 Haardt Riesling

VDP.Ortswein dry

"Playful, floral nose. Dark green, spicy, piquant on the palate. Good structure, with balanced aromas. Shows tension and tension." | Drinking recommendation: 2021 to 2031
