« To understand Müller-Catoir you have to engage with its entirety, and these Muscats and Scheurebes and Rieslaners are—I don't hesitate to claim it—great wines. Their quality is not exceeded by anyone else making wines from those grapes. If the wines are relatively extravagant, they are by no means radical. They are classics. »	Terry Theise The World of Fine Wine
« The dry whites of Müller-Catoir continue to be some of the best in Germany, particularly bottlings like the Bürgergarten "Im Breumel" GG. »	James Suckling WEEKLY TASTING REPORT
« Vogelsang project: A total area of almost ten hectares, with many dry stone walls, in the middle of a nature reserve, high above the roofs of the city of Neustadt, bounded by the Palatinate Forest. At last this vineyard treasure was kissed awake. The birth of the future Grand Cru site of Neustadt! »	Vogelsang project Meininger's Sommelier The magazine for fine wining
« The estate Müller-Catoir is a living legend. »	Gault Millau Wine Guide Germany 2019
« Müller-Catoir is bought because the wines are as they are. And that is far away from any superficiality. »	Vinum Wineguide Germany 2019
« Among the dry wines of the Müller-Catoir winery this year, the "Grand Cru" from the "Breumel" is clearly ahead (...) »	Eichelmann 2019 Germany's Wines
« A historic name that continues to make excellent wines (...) »	Vinopolis Wine Shop Mid-Week Newsletter Addition 7-27-17
« Stand back for the arrival of a giant! »	James Suckling about 2017 Bürgergarten "Im Breumel" GG Tasting report of September 19, 2018
