
RIESLING
dry Bürgergarten

TASTING NOTE

Dense and complex aroma potpourri of fruit and roasted aromas. Ripe nectarines, dried apricots. Lightly toasted bread and caramelized walnuts. The rich, ripe fruit mixes with the subtle roasted aromas. A wave of minerality on the finish. The Riesling has developed very well. Full-bodied and yet filigree, fresh but not annoying. Lots of fruit with a spicy undertone and fine citrus.

Great value. Warrants further aging."
2022 James Suckling: 95/100 "This youthful beauty needs some aeration for the wealth of stone fruit, mandarin orange and orange blossom aromas to fully unfurl. Concentrated and compact with stacks of wet stone minerality this is a strong wine that some may find a bit demanding right ..."
