
RIESLING
dry Bürgergarten

TASTING NOTE

Animating, very own nose. Ripe, yellow heavenly fruit. Mineral touch. Aromas of orange blossom, coconut, passion fruit and white peach. Juicy fruit in the mouth, highlighted with an exceptional freshness. Creamy, dense and fine. Elegant acid structure surrounded by a playful fruitiness. Gives a lot of pleasure with its juiciness and the slightly salty finish. A wine with size and drinking flow - that fits together.

AWARDS

2021 James Suckling: 95/100 "A stunning single-vineyard dry riesling with apricot and mango aromas plus a wonderful harmony of ripeness and freshness on the generous and concentrated palate. The fine tannins and mineral acidity at the finish support this beautifully. So much apricot character and citrusy freshness at the very long finish." | Wine Enthusiast: "This is very classic in profile. An elegant frame sports shadings of ginger spice and minerality, with flavors of apricot and citrus, all together in an expressive, harmonious package. The inviting finish caps it." | Wine Enthusiast: "This is quite subtle at ..."
