dry

Haardt

TASTING NOTE

The 2013 Haardt Riesling is of a light-yellow colour with straw-yellow reflections, combining the fruity scent of apricot jam with a cool hint of peppermint and a hint of balsamic notes. On the palate, the round taste is confirmed by the soft juiciness of the dry Riesling. A fine ripe apple note underlines the impression.

AWARDS

2013 Restaurant Wine (Ronn Wiegand): 4+/5 stars | enos 9th

Riesling Challenge: Top ten placement in the category

"Tastefully dry Rieslings of the vintages before 2014"

2022 James Suckling: 93/100 "For a riesling from the Pfalz this has an almost Mosel-like floral personality. Notes of fresh mint and parsley fill out the bouquet. Then comes a big wave of melon fruit that is of eye-popping intensity. Breathtaking freshness at the vibrant finish."

2021 James Suckling: 93/100 "A very elegant and racy wine for the warm Pfalz with a wonderful range of aromas from yellow peach and melon through to red apple and Amalfi lemon. Ample fruit in spite of the relatively sleek body. Long, very vibrant and crisp finish."
